

IN NORWICH FIFTY YEARS AGO

Fifty years ago this week the foundation for the then new courthouse was completed and preparations were being made to abandon the congregation work for the winter months. News dispatches which arrived that week confirmed the rumors of disaster to the French army, which was then at war with the Prussians and there were grave fears that Paris would be compelled to capitulate to starvation, thus being their last opportunity to shake off the grasp of the invaders.

Interesting extracts from the files of the Bulletin of December, 1870 follow:

Monday, Dec. 6, 1870.—The railroad company are making surveys with a view to flooding Cedar swamp in the town of Lebanon, for a reservoir to furnish power to one of their mills in Lebanonville. By building a dam 10 feet high it is believed that a comparatively worthless tract of country of about 1,000 acres in extent, can be flooded to an average depth of about ten feet.

A. C. Lums of this city, has constructed to furnish 300,000 tons and more for the general construction of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad in West Virginia.

A chicken market for high toned poultry was established at a restaurant near the Wauregan house yesterday. People who passed thought it was a hamburger cheese exchange.

Tuesday, Dec. 6, 1870.—The common council occupied its new chamber for the first time last evening.

A sign of winter are the sleds which are running along the sidewalks.

Nearly every kind of shell fish of the country, with the exception of snails, is in the market, which is at the wharf.

Wednesday, Dec. 7, 1870.—At 10:15 A. M. Tuesday a kerosene lamp exploded in one of the street cars. A gentleman seated the largest fragments and threw them into the street. His hands were slightly burned.

The horse railroad company is laying a track on Franklin street near Grove.

The festival given by the ladies of the Congregational church at Preston City Tuesday night was well attended and passed off pleasantly. A large number from this city were present.

The annual meeting of the New London County Agricultural Society for the election of officers will be held on Wednesday, December 14th.

Thursday, Dec. 8, 1870.—I. H. Bromley gave a very interesting lecture entitled "Olimpus of the War," in Broad hall last evening.

The lecture was followed with the most attention and gave much pleasure to his enthusiastic audience.

The despatches which came over the wires within the last forty-eight hours are confirmatory of all the rumors of disaster to the French army, which for a week has been flying about. Unless success shall come speedily Paris will be compelled to capitulate by starvation and the last opportunity for France to shake off the grasp of the invaders will be gone.

Jedediah Huntington, 70, died suddenly at his residence Tuesday morning. Mr. Huntington had been slightly indisposed for a few days. Mr. Huntington was about 70 years of age and was one of our most respected citizens. At the time of his death he was a vice president and director of the Norwich Savings Society.

Friday, Dec. 9, 1870.—Prussia, it seems is not to be satisfied with Alsace-Lorraine, after all. A dispatch from Brussels says that she is plotting for the annexation of Luxembourg which she counts because of its possession will vastly enhance the strategic importance of Lorraine.

The resignation of First Lieutenant Timothy Corwell, Company B, and Second Lieutenant Francis Conery, Company B, Eighty Regiment, have been accepted by General McCord.

The annual meeting of the Windham County Agricultural Society was held at Brooklyn on Wednesday, the 7th inst. When: President, Joseph D. Bates; vice president, James M. Johnson, John D. Theron, Theron D. Whitford; recording secretary and treasurer, E. Newbury.

Saturday, Dec. 10, 1870.—The foundation of the courthouse was completed work and bank walls are yet to be built yesterday morning. Portions of the brick when the lot will be abandoned for the winter.

At the boiler shop in Thomsville, a boiler for the steam construction of the steamship Hunt of Philadelphia and Providence line. The Hunt will come to this city port for the boiler to be put in.

The funeral of Jedediah Huntington, 70, was held yesterday and was largely attended. The Rev. Mr. Dana conducted the service at the residence. Burial was in the Yantic cemetery.

An addition of wood, 23x30 feet, to Pollard's boiler shop at Thomsville, is being built.
